SONABAI — Another Way of Seeing

Through Sept. 5, 2010

Self-taught Indian artist Sonabai Rajawar created a joyous sculptural environment while living in enforced isolation for 15 years. View the latticework screens and painted clay people and animals she created, as well as those created by others in her village.

¡VIVA MÉXICO! — Heroes and Artisans

Feb. 28, 2010 - Jan 2, 2011

Commemorating the anniversaries of Mexico's Independence (1810) and Revolution (1910) this exhibition features more than 100 works, including a 6-foot-tall tree of life. It celebrates the country's folk art and many artisans who perpetuate Mexico's historical memory and exuberant artistic traditions.

BETWEEN EAST AND WEST — Folk Art Treasures of Romania

Opening July 2010

This exhibition will showcase a significant collection of traditional apparel, textiles, pottery, carved wood and folk paintings — arts of daily life that have largely disappeared from present-day Romania.

You'll also receive:

- Discounts on hands-on workshops, demonstrations, festivals and trips
- 10% discount in the Museum Store
- Invitations to members' receptions and other free events
